

Which is Larger the Sun or a Cent?

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun. Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet—but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality—the purity—the dependability of

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies—the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive.

When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength.

Buy it—try it—be convinced. A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Cranberries The Fruit for Every Meal!

Cranberries are good themselves and make other foods taste good! At breakfast—try cranberry jelly on hot biscuits or toast; it is surprisingly good! For lunch—with cold cuts—cranberry sauce makes a most delicious relish. For dinner—with roast beef—cranberry sauce adds a piquant flavor and aids digestion. Try these recipes:

Cranberry Sauce

One quart cranberries, two cups boiling water, 1½ to 2 cups sugar. Boil sugar and water together for five minutes; skim; add the cranberries and boil without stirring (five minutes is usually sufficient) until all the skins are broken. Remove from the fire when the popping stops.

Cranberry Pie

Have ready a partly baked pastry shell. Pour in sauce when cold, made by the above sauce recipe, put strips of pastry over the top, and finish baking in a moderate oven.

Always cook cranberries in porcelain-lined, enameled, or aluminum vessels.

Football Comment and Gossip
by W.L. Huggins Jr.

Today is probably the most important day of the football year for Washburn.

The game this afternoon with the College of Emporia, either effectually shuts off all Ichabod hopes, or puts them on a high and mighty basis.

Kenon and his men say they are ready.

A light but snappy signal practice last night was the final link in the chain of preparations for the big event. Two hundred tickets have been sold for the special train Emporia, leaving the Santa Fe station at 11:10 this morning. More rooters are expected to pile aboard at the last moment. Many are driving down, despite the change in the weather.

Emporia is ready. Coach Gwin Henry and his fighting red-sweatered men claim they are anxious for the opening whistle to begin taking the Blue warriors into camp.

The game, we think, will be the best on the Washburn schedule this year. Last Saturday Washburn took the Emporia Normals by surprise. And the Normals were unable to recover from the amazement of seeing Washburn in good shape—in time to win the game.

But Emporia knows what kind of a team Washburn has—and they are pointing—pointing anxiously.

Pittsburg Normals did what was expected of them by the coin and others yesterday, when they defeated St. Mary's 13 to 7 in a game that was reported to be one of the closest played on the St. Mary's field this year.

The Pittsburg men scored first in the first quarter following long penalties, when Scott and Avery battered the line for the counter. The goal from touchdown failed.

St. Mary's came back strong in the second quarter and played hard, consistent ball. Long end runs by Ramielotti finally took the ball to the Pittsburg ten yard line and four downs the ball backed three inches of going over. Pittsburg took the ball and kicked out of danger as the half ended.

In the third quarter forward passes by Ramielotti to Walsh took the ball again to the Pittsburg ten yard line and Ramielotti carried the pigskin over the goal line. Walsh kicked goal.

With the score 7 to 6 in their favor, the St. Mary's rooters went wild. Their enthusiasm was short-lived, however, as the Weedenes opened up a beautiful forward pass attack and soon made their second touchdown. Scott kicked goal.

Spectators say the game was the clearest exhibition of football seen in St. Mary's this season.

The University of Kansas football eleven, under the direction of Coach "Potay" Clark, is holding its final practice today in Lincoln, Neb., in preparation for the hard game Saturday afternoon with the heavy Cornhuskers eleven. The coaches and players, as well as a large bunch of rooters left Lawrence Thursday night.

Dope is overwhelming against K. U. In the fray tomorrow but the Jayhawkers eleven, the coaches and the rooters during practice this week have exhibited no signs that they were conceding the game to the Cornhuskers. Nebraska beat Oklahoma, 44 to 0, and then the Oklahoma took K. U. down to defeat last Saturday by a score of 24 to 7. However, Kansas rooters can't forget the great comeback that the Jayhawkers made last year when they overcame a 20 to 0 lead held by Nebraska in the first half and tied the game. Then again Nebraska's win over the strong Pittsburg team in the east last Saturday given her more prestige.

Nebraska holds considerable edge over Kansas in the games of the past between the two schools. Out of 26 games K. U. has won but nine while the Cornhuskers carried off sixteen. The contest last year is the only tie battle the schools have played. The last victory Kansas gained over the rivals from the north was in 1916, when the score rested with the Jayhawk, 7 to 3.

Despite the defeat at Oklahoma last week the Jayhawkers are still expected to especially low levels. The team exhibited lost ground gaining power even though defeated and it is pointed out by supporters that the Kansas team has not failed to register at least one touchdown or more against each opponent so far this season.

Unless Kansas can defeat Nebraska the Cornhuskers will probably go undefeated by any Missouri Valley conference team this season as they only play three of the conference eleven and have already disposed of Oklahoma.

The Kansas lineup will be much the same tomorrow as in the last two games. However, Davidson is expected to be back at right tackle after having been laid up for several weeks with a twisted knee. Freese has held this berth in the last few starts and also an inexperienced man has played a good game and should be a valuable man to the K. U. squad in the future.

Kansas has shown herself thus far this year to be strong in the forward passing department, but this week has been devoted largely to the perfection of other modes of attack.

Every now and then, about once a year, some small college, laid away all by itself in a little town, rises up and whips a larger team, to the surprise and admiration of the country. Human nature generally is for the smaller factor, when in contest, be it man, school, team or nation. It is just "natural" that the interest public should want the smaller man or school to win in a fight or a football game.

That is why the entire country went wild when little Centre college, down in Danville, Ky., whipped the mighty Harvard eleven.

Also, to bring it closer home, that's the reason that the town of Emporia is generally tickled to death when the college, with its 350 students, whips the State Normal, endowed by the state and boasting a thousand or two students.

So it goes. We heard the other day of another little college that did a big thing in a football way. Elrick B. Davis, a Washburn professor, who is an alumnus of this college, left an irate note on our desk, demanding that we give immediate attention to the performance of his alma mater in the football world.

Kenyon college is the one. It is located in Gambier, Ohio. Kenyon has an enrollment of approximately 200. It is a man's college—none of your co-ed stuff for Kenyon. Every time Kenyon steps on a gridiron it does so at a disadvantage, for no matter what school in Ohio or the surrounding country it plays, that school has a larger enrollment from which to pick its players. And Kenyon doesn't play freshmen.

The other Saturday Kenyon stepped into battle with Wooster college. Wooster hadn't been defeated in a game since 1916. They considered the Kenyon game a snap.

But Kenyon won 3-0. They fought it all over the Wooster men. And the Cleveland and Columbus (Ohio) papers thought enough of the surprise to string a few banner heads over their sporting pages telling

It requires no more effort to say "Post Toasties" than to say "corn flakes." But what a difference there is in the flavor of

Post Toasties—best corn flakes

They give the appetite something to be thankful for. Insist on "Post Toasties" and refuse substitutes.

ing all Ohio about the game. It was considered the most surprising football upset of the season in that section of the country, with the possible exception of Oberlin's defeat of Ohio State.

Last year Kenyon pulled another sensational victory when she defeated Western Reserve, a traditional enemy, 17-14. And the opposing college has several thousand students.

And the football world was glad that little Kenyon did the trick on both occasions. It hopes she'll do it again.

Topeka will have a game Armistice day, even if Washburn is going out of town.

The Topeka highs meet Wichita on Washburn field at 3 o'clock this afternoon in a game slated to be close, but in which the dope points to a Topeka win.

Topeka, coached by "Jerk" Barnes, lost only one game this season, that to Ottawa. A tie game with Manhattan is the only other mar on the Topeka record.

Topeka have seen the boys from the high school several times this season on the Washburn gridiron. They know that T. H. S. plays football.

The game tomorrow should be full of thrills. The Topeka men are all in the pink of condition with the exception of Jolley, who is out of the game with injuries.

TOPEKA MAKES BIG GAIN

New Telephone Directory Contains 12,064 Names.

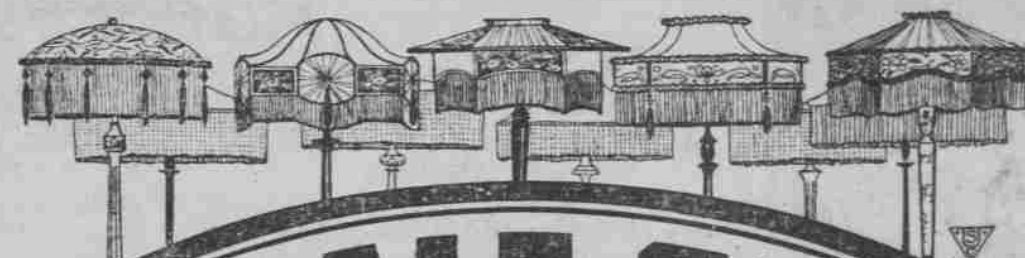

If the telephone directory can be used as a basis of computation, Topeka's population has gained 2,465 since last spring.

The new directory, just out, the first issued since spring, contains the names of 12,064 subscribers. The old directory contained 11,484 subscribers. Taking the government census of 1920, giving Topeka's population as 50,023, as the basis for figuring, it will be noted that the ratio of telephones to the population was approximately 4.7. Multiplying this number by 580, which represents the increase in the number of telephones in use, gives an increase in population of 2,465 persons.

New York, Nov. 11.—Johnny Buff, the 33-year-old daddy of the bantamweight division, continued today to be the possessor of the unitary laurels by trouncing Jack Sharkey in a fifteen-round battle at Madison Square Garden last night.

Buff, holder also of the American fly weight title, cleanly displayed his superior boxing, outboxing, outbucking and outfighting his opponent. The champion was aggressor throughout, continually forcing Sharkey to back ground.

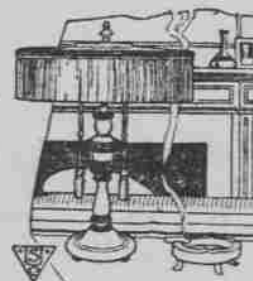

Covington, Ky., Nov. 11.—Harry Wills, New York, negro heavyweight, stopped Clem Johnson, negro claimant of the South American championship, in six rounds.
